The Preservation Of Iran From American Destruction, Amen!

“The war will not happen, My son. The dream that you had was from Me. The soldiers from America will not assemble there to spare My people the Iranian Christians, My people. They will not invade My land Iran nor bomb their capitol with their jet planes— I will make sure of it. They will not destroy My people in the war long planned against them by your people the Elites of evil in your government and military— I will make sure of it. Instead, your country shall suffer internal disorder when I make sure that its economy collapses— its debt is unsustainable and massive, and it cannot be controlled by any means. I will make sure that your country collapses for planning war against My nation Iran. Never again shall it plan war against foreign empires of sin for it has too many problems to deal with at home. This Babylon empire of sin shall destroy itself with war internally and not wage war externally. My people shall be preserved from the wrath of America and not be destroyed. The prayers of My people the Iranian Christians have come up before Me and have preserved their race from destruction. I have spoken. Amen, My son, Brian."
